

Madushika Ranapana

A highly motivated and energetic individual with a passion for excellence in Software Quality Assurance. Seeking a dynamic role to leverage my enthusiasm and drive, aiming to contribute to a challenging and innovative environment while continuously expanding my industry knowledge.

Work Experience

• Intern Software Engineer at Mobios Pvt Ltd | Sep 2023

During my internship, I have focused on API integration and frontend development using React JS. This specialization has empowered me to enhanced user interfaces and user experiences on various projects. Additionally, I've played a crucial role in maintaining coding standards through pull request reviews, ensuring code quality, scalability and maintainability. These experiences have greatly enriched my technical expertise and softskills in frontend web development.

Skills : ReactJS- MUI, Bootstrap, HTML5, CSS3, Github, Javascript, Java, MySQL, Postman, Trello, Visual Studio Code

• Teacher - Part time | Jan 2023 - Present

• IT Technician | March 2019 -2020

During my tenure, I have gained substantial experience in networking hardware and software, including hands-on expertise in configuring routers and switches. I have also become proficient in Microsoft Office, enhancing my productivity and documentation skills. Additionally, I have honed my abilities in Adobe Photoshop, creating and editing images efficiently, and in Visual Studio with C#, developing and debugging applications effectively. These skills have equipped me to handle a wide range of technical tasks and projects.
